A. Membership is limited to persons:

- 1.) Who reside in the State of Indiana or whose principal place of business is in the State.
- 2.) Who have appropriate educational background, and
- 3.) Whose usual professional activities relate primarily to environmental management, planning, impact assessment, environmental protection, or environmental compliance, including such activities as permitting, compliance auditing, regulatory review, research, teaching, engineering, design, quality assurance, health assessment and implementation of environmental protection and control. All members shall subscribe to the attached Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice.

B. All candidate applications must be a member of the National Association of Environmental Professionals (NAEP), or (2) approved by a majority of the INAEP Board of Directors upon the recommendation of one of the Association's Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, or membership committee, before membership is granted.

General Member: Persons who meet each of the requirements set forth in subsection A above and who have been engaged in such activities for not less than three (3) years shall be General members.

Student Member: Requires at least half-time registration in an academic course of study leading to a degree with a concentration in an environmentally-related field.

Associate Member: Persons who are, or actively seek to become, involved in environmental professional activities, but who do not meet the requirements for General membership may become Associate members.

Corporate or Institutional Membership. Persons within Corporate and or Institution must meet each of the requirements set forth in subsection A above. In addition, Corporate Membership includes the following:

- Membership benefits include 5 registered members, all of whom must adhere to the INAEP General or Associate Membership requirements and Environmental Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice of the INAEP. The registered members will be determined by the registering corporate sponsor. The company takes responsibility to notify the INAEP Membership Chairman regarding employees who will have membership on behalf of the company. The term for each of the chosen 5 members will be one year. Revisions to the corporate membership roster may be made annually at the time of sponsorship renewal;
- The INAEP requests that each individual member of the 5 chosen by the registering corporate sponsor fill out a membership application so that the organization may stay up to date on contact information and member areas of expertise.
- For each additional membership requested over the five memberships, a reduced membership fee of $25 will be assessed to the company;
- Entitled to one vote per registered member on all matters put before the Association;
- Corporate Sponsor highlighted and job openings in INAEP's Newsletter
- Dues: $150 per year
